Question

"Up to and including Monday 16th November 2026, will the Minister detail which stakeholders he has met in his official capacity since being appointed to his current Ministerial role?"

Answer

As Minister I am in regular contact with a number stakeholder groups, local businesses and individuals. I have also attended events and roundtable sessions which have provided the opportunity to meet with numerous representatives from local organisations, businesses and the charitable sector.

In my official capacity as Minister, I have held meetings with the following stakeholder groups:

- Bailiff's Chambers
- Channel Islands Financial Services Ombudsman
- Chamber of Commerce
- Parish of St Helier
- Comité des Connétables
- DFDS
- Digital Jersey
- Durrell
- EIA Scrutiny Panel
- Fiscal Policy Panel
- Gambling Commission
- Institute of Directors
- Jersey Air Display
- Jersey Battle of Flowers
- Jersey Business
- Jersey Competition Regulatory Authority
- Jersey Cyber Security Centre
- Jersey Financial Services Commission
- Jersey Heritage
- Jersey Hospitality Association
- Jersey Office of the Information Commissioner
- Loganair
- Mentorhood
- Ports of Jersey
- Visit Jersey

In addition to the above, I have met with a number of individual islanders, entrepreneurs and my counterparts from Guernsey and Brittany and have additionally met with various individuals from the agricultural, biopharmaceutical, car rental, charitable, film & media, financial services, hospitality, recruitment businesses, retail and taxi sectors.
