BY DEPUTY T.A. COLES OF ST. HELIER SOUTH
QUESTION SUBMITTED ON MONDAY 16th NOVMBER 2026
ANSWER TO BE TABLED ON MONDAY 23rd NOVEMBER 2026

Question

"Up to and including Monday 16th November 2026, will the Minister detail which stakeholders he has met in an official capacity since being appointed to his current Ministerial role?"

Answer

As Minister for Treasury and Resources, I engage regularly with a wide range of stakeholders, representative bodies, businesses, charitable organisations and individual Islanders on matters relating to public finances, taxation, public expenditure, economic development and the delivery of public services.

Since my appointment, I have held meetings in my official ministerial capacity with representatives of the following organisations and bodies:

- Andium Homes Limited
- HM Attorney General
- Bailiff's Chambers
- Chamber of Commerce
- Chair of the Comité des Connétables
- CSSP Scrutiny Panel
- DFDS
- Digital Jersey
- Fiscal Policy Panel
- His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor
- Jersey Audit Office
- Jersey Business
- Jersey Finance
- Jersey Financial Services Commission
- Jersey Fire & Rescue Service
- Jersey Electricity
- Jersey Hospitality Association
- Jersey Post
- Jersey Telecom
- Jersey Water
- Loganair
- Ports of Jersey
- States of Jersey Development Company
- Statistics Jersey
- The Honorary Consul of the Republic of Poland
- Treasury Advisory Panel
- Visit Jersey

In addition to the organisations listed above, I have met with States Members, individual Islanders, representatives of financial institutions, business owners and other stakeholders to discuss matters relevant to my ministerial responsibilities, including the Island's economic outlook, public finances, taxation, investment and the financial challenges facing businesses and households.

I have also met with representatives from a number of charitable and community organisations including Brighter Futures, Caring Cooks, Caritas Jersey, Citizens Advice Jersey, FREEDA, Jersey Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (JSPCA), Mentorhood and Mind Jersey.

The above list reflects organisations and bodies with which I have held meetings in my ministerial capacity and does not include every individual encountered at official events or public engagements.
