Immigration (Electronic Travel Authorisations) (Jersey) Commencement Order 2026.

Minister for Justice and Home Affairs.

This Order brings into force, 7 days after the Order is signed, the Immigration (Electronic Travel Authorisations) (Jersey) Order 2025. That Order is an Order in Council extending to Jersey section 75 of the Nationality and Borders Act 2022 of the United Kingdom. That Act amends the Immigration Act 1971 of the United Kingdom and the Nationality, Immigration and Asylum Act 2002 of the United Kingdom, as they are extended to Jersey by the Immigration (Jersey) Order 2021. The effect of the amendments being brought into force is as follows –

- they give the Minister for Justice and Home Affairs (the “Minister”) a power to make immigration rules to require Electronic Travel Authorisations for travel to Jersey;
- they give the Minister a power to make an Order dealing with the effect of Electronic Travel Authorisations that are granted or refused in the United Kingdom, the Bailiwick of Guernsey or the Isle of Man;
- they give the Minister a power to request that the United Kingdom’s Secretary of State carries out functions related to the granting of Electronic Travel Authorisations;
- they give the States a power to make Regulations to require an applicant for an Electronic Travel Authorisation to provide biometric information;
- they make it an offence to use deception to obtain, or seek to obtain, an Electronic Travel Authorisation.

The Order was made on 4th March 2026 and came into force the same day.

R&O.19/2026.

Control of Borrowing (Jersey) Amendment Order 2026.

Minister for External Relations.

This Order amends the Control of Borrowing (Jersey) Order 1958 (the “COBO”) and makes consequential amendments to related legislation.

The COBO specifies a range of transactions (including borrowing and other forms of capital raising, the formation of bodies corporate and unincorporated, and the issue of shares, securities and other interests) that must not take place without the consent of the Jersey Financial Services Commission (the “Commission”).

Article 2 amends the COBO to remove that consent requirement in relation to certain transactions.

Paragraph (2) inserts the definition “retail investor”, for the purposes of Articles 8, 10(1)(c), 11(1)(c) and 11A(1)(c) as amended by this Order.

Paragraph (3) deletes Article 7, which required the Commission’s consent to the issuing of Government securities that were to be registered in Jersey, other than securities of the Government of the United Kingdom or the States of Jersey or Guernsey.

Paragraph (4) amends Article 8, which requires the Commission’s consent to the circulation in Jersey of an offer for subscription, sale or exchange (a “prospectus”) in relation to certain securities and units in a unit trust scheme. The effect of the amendment is that the Commission's consent is required only if the prospectus is issued by a person that is not incorporated or established in Jersey and is circulated to retail investors in Jersey.

Paragraph (5) amends Articles 10(1)(c), 11(1)(c) and 11A(1)(c), which require the Commission's consent to the circulation in Jersey of prospectuses in relation to certain partnership interests and interests in limited liability companies. The effect of the amendments is that the Commission's consent is required only if the prospectus is issued by a person that is not incorporated or established in Jersey and is circulated to retail investors in Jersey.

Paragraph (6) amends Article 14, so that the requirement to obtain the Commission's consent –

- (a) under Article 1(2), 3(1), 9(1)(a) or (b), 10(1)(a) or (b), 11(1)(a) or (b) or 11A(1)(a) or (b) does not apply to a non-Jersey domiciled entity unless it is an investment fund;
- (b) under Article 9(1)(a) or (b) does not apply to a Jersey unit trust unless it is an investment fund.

Paragraph (7) inserts new Article 14A, which makes provision about consents granted by the Commission before this Order comes into force. It states that if a consent described in Article 14 (as amended by paragraph (6)) was granted before 13th April 2026, the consent is no longer required from that date and is treated as no longer having effect. And it states that the amendments made by this Order do not affect the validity of anything done in reliance on consent granted by the Commission under the COBO before this Order comes into force.

Articles 1, 3 and 4 make consequential amendments to remove references to consent under the COBO from, respectively, the Collective Investment Funds (Restriction of Scope) (Jersey) Order 2000, the Financial Services (Investment Business (Restricted Investment Business – Exemption)) (Jersey) Order 2001 and the Financial Services (Investment Business (Special Purpose Investment Business – Exemption)) (Jersey) Order 2001.

Collective Investment Funds (Certified Funds – Prospectuses) (Jersey) Amendment Order 2026.

Minister for External Relations.

This Order amends the Collective Investment Funds (Certified Funds – Prospectuses) (Jersey) Order 2012 (the “2012 Order”) to provide for additional circumstances in which a certificate holder is exempt from the requirement to prepare a prospectus under the 2012 Order. The new exemption relates to the secondary issuances of securities that are excluded from the definition “prospectus” in the Companies (Jersey) Law 1991 by the Companies (General Provisions) (Jersey) Amendment Order 2026.

Article 2 of this Order replaces Article 1A of the 2012 Order to provide for a new exemption from compliance with the Order. The effect of the amendment is that a certificate holder is not required to prepare a prospectus for the issue of units being marketed that relates to an admission to trading within Article 3(3) or (6) of the Companies (General Provisions) (Jersey) Order 2002. The existing exemption for a certified fund of a type described in Schedule 2 to the 2012 Order is retained.

Bank (Recovery and Resolution) Amendment (Jersey) Commencement Order 2026.

Minister for External Relations.

This Order provides for the commencement of the Bank (Recovery and Resolution) (Jersey) Amendment Law 2025 (the “Amendment Law”), which amends the Bank (Recovery and Resolution) (Jersey) Law 2017 (the “2017 Law”) and other enactments to provide for –

- (a) the continuation of the Bank Depositors Compensation Scheme; and
- (b) the transfer of functions to the Jersey Resolution and Depositors Compensation Authority (“the Authority”) for the administration of that Scheme.

Article 54(1) and (3) of the Amendment Law come into force 7 days after this Order is made and replace “financial year” with “final reporting period” within Article 14 (accounts and reports) of the Banking Business (Depositors Compensation) (Jersey) Regulations 2009.

The majority of the remaining provisions of the Amendment Law come into force on 1 April 2026, to give effect on that date to the transfer of functions from the Jersey Bank Depositors Compensation Board (“the Board”) to the Authority. Article 54(2) and (4) come into force on that date, providing for the Board to continue in existence until 1st July 2026 for the purpose of fulfilling its functions in relation to the final reporting period (which ends on 31st March 2026).

The rest of the Amendment Law comes into force on 1st July 2026, at the end of the 3-month period allowed for the orderly dissolution of the Board. Accordingly, under new Article 142B of the 2017 Law, the assets, rights and liabilities of the Board are transferred to the Authority on 1st July 2026.

Regulation 14(11) is inserted into the 2009 Regulations by Article 54(3) of the Bank (Recovery and Resolution) (Jersey) Amendment Law 2025, which comes into force 7 days after the Bank (Recovery and Resolution) Amendment (Jersey) Commencement Order 202- is made. Regulation 14(11) defines “final reporting period” as ending on a date specified by Order under Article 51 of the Law.

The effect of this Order is that the final reporting period will end on the 31st March 2026, which is the last date on which the Jersey Bank Depositors Compensation Board has responsibility for administering the Bank Depositors Compensation Scheme.

Article 1 of this Order specifies 31st March 2026 as the end date of the final reporting period.

Article 2 of this Order provides for citation and commencement.
