I would be totally against a Supermarket in St.Peter (or the Waterfront), for the following reasons:

- 1, We are well served by our current outlets.
- 2, The need for staff would increase the population by stealth.
- 3, A Tesco type outlet would help to make the Island even more of a UK clone.
- 4, Profits and Dividends would not be re-invested in Jersey.
- 5, It would be another step to tearing the heart out of central St.Helier.
