

I work in a very busy shop in St.Helier as sales advisor. I serve people from all walks of life. Although card payments has become the " normal payment" method in our time I think that the full withdrawal of cash would deeply affect the elderly, those who can't access bank cards or those who prefer to use cash for better control of their spending. I really notice worse difficulties with the elderly.