Dear Sir/Madame

As a frequent traveler on the Jersey/St Malo route, the price of a foot passenger has increased, so that during school/Public holidays, it is unaffordable for a lot of folk such as myself... As I have a large number of French/English friends in France, they too have found prices unreasonable and have chosen not to visit Jersey due the price of the tickets!

Last minute cancellations are also a big 'Put Off' and working folk are not prepared to risk travel, especially if it involves extra overnight stays in hotel accommodation!

20 Years of this will be catastrophic, to say the least

Yours Sincerely

Vanessa Tierney
