

Charges should be made for persons using this service for the wrong reasons, the clue is in the name. For too long this service has been abused by people trying to avoid paying for go appointments.

Adrian le Corre